

Snow White and the Seven short men by Camron, Kurvanni, Hannah, Kennezuan and Charlie

Once upon a time there was a wicked witch and she was getting rid of Snow White because everyone liked her. "Mirror mirror on the wall who's the fairest of us all...Snow White is!"

Snow White was sent to the forrest. She found the little people. They looked like me and short like me but i'm a child and they are grown ups. They won't get bigger. No one liked them because they were different and so sent them away to the forrest to hide. She liked their house and said can i stay? They said "you want to stay wtih us?!" And they loved her and looked after her.

The godmother pretends she is ugly and she have her a tomato to eat and it gets stuck in her mouth. Everyone thought she was dead. Then the prince kissed her hand and it was magic. They lived happily ever after.

Can I retell a story?
