Snow White and the Seven other people by Emmanuella, Salome, Ibukun, Vanessa, Kofi and Riquan.

Once upon a time it was ten o'clock. There lived a witch and her daughter. The witch liked mirrors and always spoke to hers. It told her horrible things. It said she was ugly. We are all beautiful at our school.

Snow white was sent away into the woods and she found little people. There were 7 of them. They are grown up in children bodies. They will be young forever. They lived there because people said they looked ugly and different. Snow White didn't think that.

Finally Snow white ate an apple and died. But that was not the end because she didn't live happily ever after. A boy kissed her hand and she had to wake up again. Then that was the end and they lived happily ever after in the woods, not the castle.

Can I retell a story?
